Registrar of Vital Statistics—Appointment and Duties. (Reg. Bd. of H., Jan. 7, 1915.)

SECTION 1. There shall be appointed annually by the board of health of the village of Hackensack a registrar of vital statistics in and for the village of Hackensack, who shall serve until the first day of January next succeeding his appointment or until his successor is appointed and has qualified.

SEC. 2. In addition to the duties prescribed to be performed by such officer by the laws of the State, the registrar of vital statistics shall perform such other duties as may be from time to time required of him by the board of health. He shall, in addition to transmitting to the State bureau of vital statistics all certificates of marriages, births, and deaths received by him, report the same to this board of health at least once in each month.

Health Laws, Ordinances, and Regulations—Enforcement of. (Reg. Bd. of H., Jan. 7, 1915.)

Every member of the Hackensack Board of Health and all officers and agents thereof, shall, by virtue of their respective appointments or election, be invested with the power and authority to make the inspections and examinations required by any health law of this State to be made by local boards of health, or required by any code, ordinance, regulation, or order of this board; and all persons are hereby forbidden to interfere with or obstruct such inspection, examination, or execution under a penalty of $25 for each and every offense.

Definition of Terms. (Reg. Bd. of H., Jan. 7, 1915.)

SECTION 1. The terms "board," "this board," "said board," and "board of health," shall be held to mean the Hackensack Board of Health.

The terms "township of New Barbadoes," "New Barbadoes Township," "this township," "the township," "said township," "township limits," "village of Hackensack," "this village," "city," "this city," "Hackensack," and "Hackensack Improvement Commission," shall be held to mean all that portion of Bergen County now governed by the Hackensack Improvement Commission.

SEC. 2. The word "regulations" shall be held to include "special regulations" (which latter will be from time to time issued and will contain more detailed provisions than can be herein conveniently set forth); the word "permit" shall be construed to mean the permission in writing of this board, issued according to its rules and regulations and the sanitary code; the word "light" or "lighted" shall be held to refer to natural, external light; and all words and phrases herein defined shall also include their usual and natural meanings, as well as those herein especially given.

SEC. 3. The phrase "contagious disease" shall be held to include any disease of an infectious, contagious, or pestilential nature with which any person may be sick, affected, or attacked (more especially, however, referring to cholera, yellow fever, smallpox, diphtheria, ship or typhus, typhoid, and scarlet fevers), and also including any new disease of an infectious, contagious, or pestilential nature, and also any other disease publicly declared by this board to be dangerous to the public health.

SEC. 4. The word "street" when used in the sanitary code, shall be held to include avenues, sidewalks, gutters, places, and public alleys, and the word "public place" shall be held to include parks, piers, docks, and wharves, and water and open space thereto adjacent and also public yards, grounds and areas, and also open spaces between buildings and streets; the word "rubbish" shall be held to include all the loose and decayed material and dirt-like substance that tends to decay, or which accumulates from buildings, storing or cleaning; the word "garbage" shall be held to include every accumulation of animal or vegetable matter or both, liquid or otherwise, that attends to the preparation, decay, dealing in or storage of meats, fish, fowls, birds, fruits or vegetables; and the word "dirt" shall be held to mean natural soil, earth, and stone.

SEC. 5. A "tenement house" shall be taken to mean and include every house, building, or every portion thereof, which is rented, leased, let, or hired out to be occupied or is occupied as the house, home, or residence of more than two families living independently of one another, and doing their cooking upon the premises, or by more than two families upon a floor, so living and cooking but having a common right to the halls, stairways, yards, water-closets, or privies, or some of them. A "cellar" shall be taken to mean and include every basement or lower story of any building or house of which one-half or more of the height from the floor to the ceiling is below the level of the street adjoining.

SEC. 6. The word "meat" wherever herein used, includes every part of any land animal; and "eggs" (whether mixed or not with any other substance); the word "fish" includes every part of any animal that lives in water or the flesh of which is not meat; and the word "vegetable" includes every article of human consumption as food, which (not being meat or fish or milk) is held or offered or intended for sale and consumption; and all fish and meat and vegetables found in any place shall be deemed to be therein and held for such sale or consumption as such food, unless the contrary be distinctly proved.

SEC. 7. The word "cattle" shall be held to include all animals except birds, fowl, and fish, of which any part of the body is used as food; the word "butcher" shall be held to include whoever is engaged in the business of keeping, driving, or slaughtering any cattle or in selling any meat; the words "private market" shall include every store, cellar, stand, or place (not being a part of a public market) at which the business is the buying, selling or keeping for sale of meat, milk, fish, or vegetables for human food.

Permits—Revocation of. Penalty for Violation of Regulations. (Reg. Bd. of H., Jan. 7, 1915.)

Revocation of permits.—SECTION 1. Any permit granted under this code may be revoked by the board of health for the violation of any provisions of the code under which it is granted, or for any good cause shown, and after an opportunity has been granted to the holder of such permit to be heard by the board of health. During the pendency of such proceeding, said board of health may, at its discretion, order the permit to be suspended, and all transactions thereunder to be discontinued, under the penalties herein provided as though such permit had not been granted.

Penalties, etc.—SECTION 1. Should any person or persons or corporation offend against any of the provisions of this code, and there be no penalty stated therein as a punishment therefor, the penalty for such offense shall not be less than $20 nor more than $100.
